

Crime Commission Response to Petition regarding Ray Kelly

It is the mission of the Memphis Shelby Crime Commission to review best practices regarding the violent crime challenges we face as a community. That includes having discussions with experts from all over the country, including Ray Kelly and his team. We will continue to have discussions with other experts as well. The Crime Commission supports best practices that adhere to established constitutional standards.